tor Tobacco in Every Case."

Telegraph Postal Dept., Hoston, Mass., Ther. 9th, 1836.—Gentlemen: I have been an inveterate cigarette consumer for the no inveterate cigarette consumer for the last ten years, smoking two packages daily, supplemented by cigars. Having used other so-called cures without avail. I tried "Haco-Guro" and I am giad to say that three boxes have made tobacco, in any form, chnoxious to me. My experience assures me that Baco-Guro will destroy the appetite for tobacco in every case. Yours truly, H. B. WIGGIN. The case of Mr. Wigni tone of the best known electricians in Bostons is that of thousands who testify that Baco-Guro is the only scientific, harmless and certain cure for the tobacco habit. Don't slop to-hacco suddenly; Baco-Guro notifies you when to cease. It is a cure, not a substitute, and is sold with iron-clad, written guarantee in cure or mosey refunded.
